WEDDING PRICING GUIDE

Focus on What Matters.

Congratulations!

We are so excited to be a part of your big day.

As a couple, you are one of a kind.
Your love. Your dreams. Your future.

You and your fiancé are about to show your families, and community of friends, that are ready to take on the world.

Your wedding should be about the two of you. Whether a small intimate ceremony, or involving a cast of hundreds, many brides and young couples are overwhelmed with the process of organizing and managing all the moving parts that make an amazing wedding day. Take a deep breath. It's going to be incredible. It will be B Remembered.

We should know. So far, we've helped over 1,500 couples with their wedding needs in 2023, and that number will double in 2024! Nationwide, no wedding planner, event organizer, or event facility handles more weddings or offers the range of services that we do.

We opened our doors with photo and video services designed for every couple. Just as your relationship evolved, so too did the depth of our solutions. We now seamlessly deliver a comprehensive range of wedding services including engagement and wedding photography, videography, DJ, affordable event coordination, hair & makeup, and even photo booths so you can focus on the things that truly matter. Like your dress. Where to register. And who to invite.

On average, most couples find, coordinate schedules, negotiate prices, and critique the quality of 15 independent vendors. Then they face the complicated task of reviewing contracts and managing the spiraling costs. At B. Remembered you work with just one partner, relieving the stress and anxiety so you can focus on what matters most. Like beef or chicken!

Around New England, including destination weddings, our team takes care of everything. Let us help you create memories that will B. Remembered forever.

FAQs

What is a day of coordinator?

In the simplest terms, they are your manager for the day. They make sure everyone is where they need to be when they need to be there, they keep the event running smoothly and on time, and act as your go to person for anything you may need that day.

Why hire a day of coordinator?

Having an outside person responsible for keeping your day running smoothly not only provides peace of mind to the couple, it also prevents the need to put that burden onto a family member or friend taking away from their ability to simply be a guest and enjoy your day. Additionally, a professional wedding coordinator does this for a living and has the experience to know what to plan for and how to address any hiccups that inevitably occur.

What if my venue already has a coordinator I'm working with?

Many venues these days have in house coordinators. We regularly work with in house coordinators because they know the venue inside and out and are an invaluable resource. However their focus is from the venue's perspective ensuring the venue provides you a great experience. Having an outside coordinator of your own fills in the gaps and their only focus is on you and what you personally need.

FAQs

How long do I need my photographer for?

We recommend picking your starting time, i.e. getting ready, first look, ceremony, etc. and then carrying through until about an hour after the final reception formalities (speeches/first dances).

Do I need the photographer until the end of the night?

Usually not, Unless you are doing a grand exit or there is something special happening for you and your guests at the very end of the evening we can typically capture enough pictures of people enjoying themselves in the hour after the final formalities.

Do I need a second shooter for the same amount of time as the primary photographer?

We recommend having a second shooter for the earlier part of the day and then having the primary shooter cover the fun and dancing portion of the night solo.

Why aren't RAW images included?

The RAW images contain every image captured by the camera on that day and many can be dark, out of focus, or of random items/objects being used to focus the camera or adjust settings. Additionally these are very large file sizes because they are captured using a technology that allows for the most data to be adjusted during the editing process. RAW images need to be run through additional software to bring out all of the details they have captured.

FAQs

How long do I need my videographer for?

We recommend picking your starting time, i.e. getting ready, first look, ceremony, etc. and then carrying through until about an hour after the final reception formalities (speeches/first dances).

Do I need the videographer until the end of the night?

Usually not. Unless you are doing a grand exit or there is something special happening for you and your guests at the very end of the evening we can typically capture enough footage of people enjoying themselves in the hour after the final formalities.

Do I need a second shooter for the same amount of time as the primary videographer?

We recommend having a second shooter for the earlier part of the day and then having the primary shooter cover the fun and dancing portion of the night solo.

Will my edited videos include audio from the ceremony?

Yes, in the full feature video we will include the voice over from the ceremony and speeches.

Why isn't RAW footage included?

With digital filming the RAW footage is comprised of many individual clips because a new clip is created every time the camera starts and stops. They need to be opened individually and can often be overwhelming for couples because often times multiple cameras are used by a single videographer which can lead to the folder containing clips that also seem to be out of order based on file names.
